Pancakes for breakfast in bed!
Pancakes for breakfast in the morning time!

That'll really say, we love you
There's no better way before we go play
That'll really say we love you, than ...

OUT ON A LIMB

Verse 1

Hello Mister Tree
What goes on up there?
What things do you see?
You're the tallest anywhere

Chorus

Oh, the things I'd do, to step into your shoe
I'd go out on a limb with you

Verse 2

Well now, Mister Tree
Could I settle on your bough?
If you would agree
I would need a boost somehow

Chorus - variation

Oh, the things I'd do to step into your shoe
Take me out on a limb with you

Bridge

We'd love the moments, we'd love the days
No word between us, just resting in the shade

Chorus - variation

Oh, the things I'd do for one look out your view
Take me out on a limb with you

WON'T YOU TAKE A WALK WITH ME?

Verse 1

Fun, the sun a buzzing bee
Won't you take a walk with me?
A vine, a pine, a bending tree
Won't you take a walk with me?
A squirrel, a burrow, a mystery
Won't you take a walk with me?

Chorus

On the rainy days
We'll sing a song in the mud all day
And I'll say that I love you
Tell a story or two
And when there's sun
We'll keep on playing
We'll go make a lot of fun
Just remember I love you
Just remember I love you
Just remember la di dai de dai de doo

Verse 2

A frog, a log, a feathered reed
Won't you take a walk with me?

Hide 'em in yoghurt
Love that the most!
Throw 'em in muffins

Try it with broccoli on a Panini
Any way, just need to say

Thousands and thousands and thousands

Never, they're never, they're never
On their cellphone (unless they're blackberries)

Honey, honey, honey
We love you

Red and orange, yellow, green, blue, indigo and violet too

Bend in refraction, come out raindrop walls
Red and orange, yellow, green, blue, indigo and violet too

AN OLD SAYING

Verse 1

There's an old saying that I think is worth repeating
Where there's a baby there's a mother that sings
The story is ancient but if we are patient
We'll hear the tune of the mother that sings

Chorus

Jay, jay - the birds are calling
Say, say - the trees stretch tall and Hey, hey - my darling, I love you

Verse 2

Deep in the river where the trout start to shiver
Water runs clearer for the mother that sings

Verse 3

Over the hillside where the doe and her fawn ride
Notes are a clear sign of the mother who sings

PARTS OF A TREE

Verse 1

These are the parts of a tree
These are the parts of a tree
The roots, the trunk, the crown
The bark that goes 'round and around
Parts of a tree

Verse 2

These are the parts of me
These are the parts of me
My head, my heart, my soul
Body set to rock 'n roll
The parts of me

Chorus

So we're kinda the same, you and me
So we're kinda the same, you and me
Little me, and you, big ol' tree
Yeah, we're kinda the same, you and me

Bridge

You grip the ground
Your family keeps you sound
You touch the sky
Your hands, they reach up high
Your heart of wood should be understood
And we both go 'round
Yeah, we go 'round and 'round and 'round and 'round and 'round!

HEY, ROBIN

Verse 1

Hey, Robin, something wrong?
Have you lost your song?
Is there something I can do?
Can I help you?

Through thick and thin
Where the branches end - I'll be your friend
Let me know what to do - I'll help you
Anytime, any day, we'll make a way
Hey, hey

Verse 2

Oh Robin, why a frown?
What brings you down?
Is there something I can do?
Can I help you?

Verse 3

If it's your wing
I'll find some string - I'll be your friend
Hold on tight, we'll make it right - I'll help you
Anytime, any day, we'll make a way
Hey, hey

BY MY SIDE

Verse 1

North wind blowing, blowing strong
Water is rolling right along
Nights are growing, growing long
Soon'll come the snowing, all winter long

Chorus

And when the sky is up above
And the chickadee sings her song
When the sun is shining up so high
When the mountain's standing strong
Then I know that something's right
And nothing could be wrong
Woah, when you're by my side, nothing could be wrong

Verse 2

Red leaves floating, floating down
Blanket of golden on the ground
Brown bear slowing, not a sound
Curled up rolling, not to be found
